

Celebration of 77th 'Republic Day'

Organized by
Purbanchal College, Silapathar
Date: 26th January, 2026

Today, on 26th January, 2026, we, the family of Purbanchal College, Silapathar, celebrated the 77th Republic Day. The flag was unfurled by Dr. Dilip Changmai, and Lighting illuminated by Mr. Mitraddev Mahanta, Sr. Assistant Professors, Department of Commerce, in the presence of Honourable Principal Sir Dr. Rose Kumar Kutum and the faculty, with students. The college family celebrated the Republic Day by lighting 77 lanterns. After the unveiling of the national flag, the inaugurator gives a brief speech on the significance of the 77th Republic Day. After a brief speech by the inaugurator, the teachers and students performed together the national song of India, "Vande Mataram". Also, the college organised various events with a day-long programme, and the students participated and performed their talents in the programme. Approximately more than 57 (teachers and students) participated in the celebration programme.

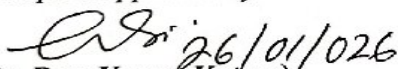

(Moment of Flag Unfurling)

(Moment of Perform of National Song by Teachers & Students)

(Moment of Different Activities)

Report Approved by

 (Dr. Rose Kumar Kutum)
 Principal & Secy.
 Purbanchal College, Silapathar

Report Prepared by

 (Mr. Bodising Narah)
 Co-ordinator, IQAC
 Purbanchal College, Silapathar